
Lumberworld Job Description – Door Pre-Hanger / Finishing Carpenter

Job Overview:

The Door Pre-Hanger/Finishing Carpenter assembles and/or manufactures various types of interior and exterior door systems including custom door units.

Required Accountabilities:

- Produce and manufacture doors according to work order using machines, power and hand tools
- Read work orders over before beginning door production to ensure you have all necessary information and materials
- Understand interior paperwork systems, quality standards and National Building Code of Canada
- Interact with door sales personnel
- Install door slabs in door jamb
- Measure and cut down door slabs and jamb, drill and cut out hinges, re-block doors where necessary
- Ensure product is correct to Work Order
- Advise supervisor of inventory or other product and production concerns
- Ensure compliance to all safety and fire regulations
- Keep door shop clean and well organized
- Ensure regulations, company policies and procedures are followed
- Maintain safety procedures at all times
- Contribute to the implementation of lean manufacturing principles
- Assume other duties as assigned by management

Job Requirements:

- Knowledge of building supplies and construction practices
- Self-starter, detail oriented with disciplined work habits
- Contribute to the ongoing healthy work environment of the team
- Take responsibility for errors made and a job well done
- Strong safety background
- Superior communications skills
- Finish carpenter experience/cabinet shop and/or body work
- Superior organizational skills
- Effective written and oral communication skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Action-oriented, self-starter attitude and ability to adapt to a fast-paced environment
- Physically able to perform tasks that require prolonged standing, sitting and other activities that are necessary to perform job duties
- Physical ability to move large, bulky and/or heavy merchandise up to 80 lbs, repeatedly
- Flexibility in work schedule to meet the demands of the store and management

Resume and letter of intent sent to careers@lumberworld.net