

MOULDER OPERATOR

Qualification

- You must have at least 1-2 years of experience operating a through-feed Moulder running standard wood component profiles.
- You must be able to perform moulder set-ups without supervision.
- Experience on a Wienig Moulder or similar is an asset.
- You are an important part of the production team, you must have an experience in handling larger runs while monitoring quality control.
- You must be able to do basic maintenance on the moulder to keep it in proper working order.

An attractive compensation package, including benefits, is offered. This is a full-time permanent position.

If this position suits you please send us your resume outlining your qualification. Send your resume to accounting@swiftsuremilling.com